The in the smashing good time of 1:59 4-5. The best previous record for the course was 2:00 1-5. made by Tristan, with 102 pounds, ca Sept 4, 1800. There were but four starters in yesterday's race which was exclusively for three-year-olds, and Watercolor was a for three-year-olds, and Watercolor was a prohibitive favorite at 1 to 3. Thomas Hitchcock, Jr's. Sir Dixon gelding, Nones, was also backed well, his price being lowered from fours to threes. A. Featherstone's Autolight and W. C. Whitney's Black Dick were both receding long shots. Spencer sat still all the way and the crack Watercress colt won in a smart gallop by a length and a half Nones collared the place by three lengths, Autolight running third. Barring the first race on the card, it was a day of winning favorites, five of them flashing past the finish post in succession. Shaw rode two of them, his win on Clarence H. Mackay's Trigger in the last event being particularly popular. This race, which was a handicap for three-year-olds and upward at a mile and a half on turf, was notable be cause of the last appearance of the famous old mare, Imp. who after a series of remarkshie triumphs will now be retired to the stud Before the horses went to the post Peter mare has had enough and has done her work well She will be retired without further

Trigger was a 7 to 5 favorite, with Baron Pepper a strong second choice at 8 to 5. Imp had a host of followers at 7 to 2, with Maid Harlem an 8 to 1 outsider. For three-of Harlem and Baron Pepper close up and Shaw playing a clever waiting game on Trigger. Then the old mare began to tire and soon she dropped far behind the others, who raced on in a bunch. Maid of Harlem was leading at the far turn, but there it was that Trigger was called upon to show her real speed and she responded with a rush that carried Mr. Mackay's colors rapidly to the front. Baron Pepper, however, came very fast in the last sixteenth, so that Shaw had to drive Trigger to win by a half a length in 233 2-5, a new record for the course, the old one being 234 1-5, held jointly by Joe Miller and Jack Point. Maid of Harlem was third, a length and a half back and thirty lengths in front of Imp. who pulled up both lame and tired. Thus ended the racing career of one of the most popular thoroughbre's who ever wore a plate.

There was surprise in store for the talent in the running of the first race, a selling event for maiden two-year-olds at five furlongs over the new Furturity course. Broadstreet and Hiuminate, equal favorites at 10.2, were nowhere. A. Featherstone's Goldaga. 20 to 1, with O'Connor up, led to the bend in the track where F. R. Hitchcock's Cryptogram, 20 to 1, well handled by Slack, and F. Brindle's Cast Iron, 8 to 1, passed him. It was a drive for all three to the wire cryptogram winning by a length and a half with Cast Iron a neck in front of Goldaga. In order to recover losses, the talent wenter monarks, 4 to 5 favorite, and Wax Taper, 13 to 10, second choice, to take the second race at a mile. Wax Taper had top weight, 128 pounds, and was ridden by Woods. It was played by a number of clubhouse turfmen. Satire, with Wonderly in the saddle, got away flying and proceeded to set a ratting pace clear to the head of the stretch Meanwhile Wax Taper had top weight, 190 and Woods spared per get up, but Satire managed to take the place from him by a nose. When the form players went into the ring to play J. W. Schorr's crack Western filly. Indurance By Right, to win the third event at five and a half furiongs they found that the layers were quoting it to 2 against her. The money was forthcoming, however, so the price was cut to 1 to 3. J. E. Madden's Peninsula, with Shaw up, was a 7 to 1 second choice, which showed in what respect Mr. Schorr's filly was held. The start was fine and Endurance by Right, carrying 126 pounds and ridden by Woods, drew clear of the bunch. She set a hot pace for the first three furiongs and was then eased up, as she had the others at her mercy. She won by a length and a half. It was a hard drive for the place, however, Jim Tully taking it from W. C. Whitney's Pretorious, 40 to 1, who was also a head in front of Peninsula. The fifth race, a selling affair for marea of all ages at six furious, brought out a field of thirteen, and three two-year-cids finished in front. Barney Schreiber's Schwaibe, the 11 to 5 favorite, was the winner by a short head in a severe drive with Ascension, 7 to 1, the latter beating Lady Sterling, 6 to 1, by three lengths. The summaries.

W. C. WHITNEY BUYS YANKEE. Will Send the Futurity Winner, Blue Girl and Nasturtium Abroad.

Not satisfied with adding the champion two-year-old filly Blue Girl to his already long string of thoroughbreds, William C Whitney yesterday effected a deal with John E. Madden by which he becomes the sole wner of the great Hanover-Correction colt. Yankee, winner of this year's Futurity and also the speedy filly, Gunfre. It is Mr. Whitney's intention to send Yankee Blue Girl and Nasturtium to England, together with at least twenty other racehorses. this fall. Nasturtium and Yankee will both be starters in the Derby, while Blue Girl will be sent to the post for the Oaks.

Chicago. Sept. 6.—Donation, favorite for the steepiechase at even money and less, fell during the race and broke his left hind leg. The horse was removed from the field with difficulty and a builtet ended his career. Virginia Carroll, a bookmaker, deliber ately kicked George McDonaid, a politician, in the stomach while the latter was in the act of making a het. Carroll was ordered to stop booking and was also escorted from the grounds, where he will be kept. Carroll will in all probability be ruled off. The effect of the order is to restrain Judge Zachritz from enforcing the injunction he leaded on Treader against the racetrack.

PITTSBURGS WIN SIX STRAIGHT FROM NEW YORKS.

A Total of Eighty Runs in the Series -Brooklyns Beat the Cincinnatis, Quakers Defeat Chicagos and St. Louis Win From Bostons - Notes.

The Pittsburga made their pennant chances rosier yesterday by walloping the crushed New Yorks in two more games, though their chances for landing the championship are not yet as bright as New Yorks' outlook for capturing tail-end honors. The leaders made a total of eighty runs during the three days' farce comedy at the Polo Grounds and in addition have performed the unusual feat of winning nine straight games away from home in one week, with a possibility of making it ten. The Brooklyns smothered the Cincinnatis yesterday, St. Louis took one of the three in Boston and Philadelphia outplayed Chicago. In the American League the Washingtons checked the leaders. Philadelphia lost to Detroit, and Baltimore and Cleveland broke even The National League results and standing

PITTSBURG, 15; NEW YORK, 2-PIRST GAME. "Start her off there," said Fred Clarke, as Davis went to the bat for the Pittsburgs in the first game at the Polo Grounds yesterday afternoon. "We want six straight" Hickman was in the points for the locals, and as he was knocked out of the box on Wednesday the visitors looked upon him as an easy mark. He lasted just four innings, in which time he was hit safely seventeen times for a total of twenty-two bases, netting eleven. Hickman was relieved by a new pitcher of the name of Livingston, who showed up well and looks to be a comer. He has a good curve and pienty of speed. Both teams did considerable kicking. In the fifth inning O'Connor of the Pittsburgs was ordered from the field for abusing Snyder from the visiting players' bench. The score:

BROOKLTN, 13; CINCINNATI, 1

The Brooklyns were not taking chances yesterday on any more hard-fought games with the Cincinnatis, and started in at the outset to clinch matters. They did not get around in the first inning, but in the second they hit Phillips so hard that they forced him to the background. Suthoff, too, was a target for the Brooklyn club-swingers and was drubbed freely. Keeler and Sheckard had another race to see which could pile up the more hits, and Willie beat Jimmy with a triple and four singles to a bouquet of three singles and one two-baser plucked by Sheckard Bay's single, a fielder's choice, base on balls and outsid fly gave the Reds their only run, as Hughes made them scatter their hits in the succeeding innings. A procession of seven Champions marched around the bases in the second liming. Keiley, Daly and Dahlen made singles, and Irwan hit for two bases. Here is where Phillips resigned, per request. Steinfeldt fumbled Farrell's tap, Hughes flied to Beckley, Keeler, Sheckard and Dolan singled, Kelley took a base on balls and the next two batters considerately struck out. There was nothing of particular moment after that except a great running catch by Harley. With arms outstretched to the straining point and going at full till, Harley gathered in the ball, robbing Daly of a three-bagger. The score:

As was the case in the other games played by the visitors, the contest resulted played by the visitors, the contest resulted in a draw. C. C. Morris distinguished himself at the bat for Merion and succeeded in compiling a century before being disposed of. With another good innings of 77, not out, by Bennett, the professional, the Merions were able to declare their inning closed with four wickets down for a total of 248. The Livingstons, however, made a determined stand and, when stumps were drawn for the day, had lost only two wickets for 125 runs. M. R. Cobb played a spiendid innings of 62, not out, while H. E. Jackson and F. F. Kelly also showed to advantage with scores of 23 and 14, not out, respectively.

Gossip of the Ring.

Billy Moore of St. Louis, despite repeated defeats of late, has made another match. He has signed to box "Whitey" Lester of Philadelphia before the club offering the biggest purse. The conditions are a 20-round bout at 135 pounds. class at time of entry, was the feature of to-day's circuit racing. The great four-year-old filly Eleata easily proved herself the best of the high-class field of twelve starters. She was so highly considered that in the pool selling before the race, she always sold first choice, at even money or better over the field. A break going away for the first mile cost her the heat, but the following three heats were won in hand. The field was sent away promptly on the first score to an even start. Belle Kusee had the pole, with the favorite in next to outside position. Just at the turn Eleata broke, and dropped back, while Consuela S. took the lead, fol-lowed by Metallas and Dolly Bidwell. TIGERS GRIDIRON IMPROVED. PRINCETON, Sept. 6. The finishing touches have been added to the work which has been done on the 'Varsity football field this summer. The season will open soon after Sept. 10, and both Jim Robinson and Capt. Pell are already working to have everything in readiness for the gridiron warriors. Under the direction of the trainer, the field has been carefully treated and all the little hollows and other defects have been remedied, rendering the turf firmer and better than it has been for years. Capt. Pell has sent out letters to last year's players notifying them to get in good condition for the fall work, and to report promptly when he issues his call later on-These players will precede the new men a few days and spend the afternoons in falling on the ball, sprinting down the field and doing other limbering up work. The recollection of what took place on Princeton's gridiron on Nov. 17 last sends a chill down the spine of every undergrada chill down the spine of every undergraduate, but that day also instilled in them a desire to do all they can to help the Tigers wipe the slate clean this November by administering a defeat to Yale on her own grounds. Whether this will be done or not will largely depend on the quality of football material that Princeton can send on to New Haven for that game. At present it seems fair to estimate Princeton's chances as about equal to Yale's Pale's players that remain for this season are more experienced than Princeton's, but the latter's team remains almost intact, while Yale must very largely build up a new eleven. While the Yale game is the principal contest of the year, every effort will be made to play a consistent game throughout the season. Following is the list of the members of last year's team who will be here again this season. Left end, Roper; left tackle, Pell; left guard, Wright, centre, Losey; right guard, Dewitt, right tackle, Davis, left half back, McCord. Substitutes End, G. NEWS OF THE WHEELMEN. First Motor Cycle Trip Across the State

Completed. The first recorded trip across New York State, from Buffalo to New York, on a motor bicycle was finished yesterday. It was made by E. L. Ferguson of Buffalo. He urday afternoon and arrived here at Eighth avenue and Fifty-sixth street at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The details of the trip are of peculiar interest just at this time. In the first place, it was not made for the sake of establishing a record and was journeyed by easy stages. It shows what is practicable in the way of touring on the new latest type of vehicle, which may be con-sidered as a combination of bicycle and automobile. In the second place, it will be useful to the chauffeurs who start on Monday for the endurance test run to Buffalo, as most of the trip was made over the route laid out for the automobiles, and the motor cyclist took notes of the road. The run was not made on any time schedule for the reason that it was a business trip. In consequence of this he did not average ten hours a day riding and frequently spent a whole half day in a town. He did not ride at night. At places, he used cycle paths where the automobiles cannot go and twice he made a détour from the course laid out by the automobile club. His total mileage was nearly 500 miles, while the route of the autos calls for just 465 miles.

Ferguson tells an interesting story of the condition of the roads and cycle paths. Some of the finest cycle paths in the State, those of Monroe county, have been ruined, he says, by some storms resembling cloud-bursts. Near Fairport, about twelve miles this side of Rochester he found a place where the cycle path has been entirely cut away for four miles owing to the building of a new road. This road is now heavy with the first layer of sand and will offer a hard proposition to the automobiles.

West of Syracuse he was obliged to take to the townath because of the mud, and he then saw an automobile being carried by a boat. He predicts some nerry sport for the chauffeurs next week. An idea of how the trip was made can be gained from the following outline from Ferguson's notebook leaving Buffalo at 3 20 o'clock in the afternoon he made the ruin of 70 miles to Rochester by night. He spent Sunday forenoon in Rochester, and leaving at 1 45 o'clock. He walked 15 miles of this distance, because it was raining and the road was a sea of mud and water. He did not leave Newark till noon on Monday and he made the following outline from Ferguson's notebook leaving Buffalo at 3 20 o'clock in the afternoon he made the ruin of 70 miles to Newark by 6 o'clock. He found the roads very poor along this stretch, and there is a five-mile piec mobile. In the second place, it will be usefut to the chauffeurs who start on Monday for leads through a swamp and the road is part of the swamp

Leaving Syracuse at 1:30 o'ciock on Tuesday afternoon, he reached Utica, 52 miles, at 8:43. He left Utica Wednesday at 1:45 and reached Amsterdam, 63 miles, at 6:45. He made the 34 miles from Amsterdam to Albany between 10 o'ciock in the morning and 12:15 in the afternoon. Leaving Albany he was misdirected and rode about ten miles out of his way. He reached Hudson, 3:4 miles from Albany, at night. His hardest day's run was made yesterday, when he day's run was made yesterday, when he covered the 12s miles from Hudson to New York. He started before daylight and, as has been stated, got here at 2 o'clock. He found the signboards which the Automobile Club had crected at a cost of two or three thousand dollars, intact, but timiks the route could be much improved by going around to avoid bad places. The finest stretch of road he found was two miles leading into Amsterdam from the west. Ferguson did not have a single breakdown, but says he walked sixty-two miles of the distance on account of unridable roads.

To-night the N. C. A circuit will be concluded at the Charles River Park track, Boston, and the champion sprinter of the year, as decided by the point system, will be known All the races at Boston yesterday and to-day are double points, the winner scoring eight instead of the usual four. This afternoon there will be two championship events, one at five miles, the other at one-third mile. To-night half mile and one mile championships are to be decided.

A la-mile amateur road race is to be run this afternoon along Jerome a enue. The start will be from the corner f 177th street and Jerome avenue, and the cur o will be to Getty Square, Yonkers, and re ur Boston, Sept. 6 – The flual match for the funior polo championship of the United States was played this afternoon at the Brookline Country Club field between Rockaway and Dedham 2d, the former team winning by the score of 13 to 7. The contest was ex-tremely interesting and the big crowd of spectators followed the play closely Rock-away's team work won the match for them, away's team work won the match for them, just as it did in the game with Myopia 2d on last Tuesday. The Bedham team has been playing together ever since last spring, but in only a few instances did they show such team work as the Rockaway aggregation. Four fifteen-minute periods were played, Dedham scoring the first goal after 2 minutes and 45 seconds of play. C. H. W. Foster, Dedham's No. 1, making it Rockaway then began work in earnest and before the end of the period scored four goals, La Montagne making them all. Foster again scored in the second period and then R. J. Collier of the Rockaways made two in succession, and following those Dedham scored three, two by Foster and one by Forbes them, the seconds of play. The teams lined up as follows: Rockaways. L. W. A. Hazard, 2, R. La Montagne, S. R. J. Collier back, P. F. Collier.

English Champion Entertains Japanese With His Skill.

There was an interesting game of billiards played in Japan recently, aithough the con-testants were not evenly matched. The players were John Roberts, the English champion, and a Mr. Suyekawa, the game taking place in the residence of Mr. Takata in Mikum-cho, Hongo, Tokio. Roberts con-ceded 700 points to his opponent in 1,000 and won by a score of 1,000 to $39, the Japanese player making only 139 points. "Roberts's game, says the account, showed all its beautiful features of delicacy, accuracy and knowledge of position, but he did not make any great scores, which is doubtless attributable to the facts that the table a new one just erected was a little down at one corner and that the number of speciators somewhat interfered with delicate cuing He went in forty times to get 1,000, his average thus being 25, and his best break average thus being 25, and his best break was an unfinished 87 at the close of the game. It is impossible to gauge Roberts a full capacity from these games. He obviously refrains from taking the fullest advantage of the positions that offer and is careful not to beat his opponent too unmercifully. Roberts also played pyramids with Mr. Takata, conceding one frame in three. The account says Roberts is a revelation to the da anese, who are very fond of billiards. Apropos of the latter remark Roberts, being the best in the world at the English style of game, is likely to be a revelation to anybody who has not seen him play. Japanese may be seen in this city occasionally playing the American game as which they show aptitude. Nevertheless Slosson, Schaefer, Daly, Carter and several others doubtlessly would be as great a revelation in Japan at the American game as Roberts is at the English. When it comes to a question of delicacy of stroke, not to mention other attributes, Schaefer might possibly be considered a greater marvel than Roberts. The late Frank Ives when on his travels was went to show in Oriental lands to what wonderful degree of proficiency the American pocketless game had been developed. was an unfinished $7 at the close of the game
